

SOCIETY

There will be no reception. Miss Adelaide will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth Randall, Miss Ella Lee, Miss Susan Ambler, Miss Virginia Mason, Miss Margaret Donaldson Hochm and Miss Tyler Cooke, who spends much in this city. The little flower girl will be Miss Elizabeth Wicker. Frederick Stanley Ruth, of New York, will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Thomas Coursey Ruth, another brother of bridegroom, J. A. A. Eugene Peann, Paul R. Powell, Edward D. John, Robert W. Johnson, Jr. and John Fulton, Jr.

Much interest to society here is centered in the approaching marriage of Miss Eleanor Carter Randolph, Warrenton, to Henry Waring Ball, Vicksburg, Miss., which will take place on Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, near Warrenton. The bride is a daughter of the late Captain and William F. Randolph, of Innis, and is connected with the prominent and representative families of Virginia. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Alfred McGillich, D. D., of Norfolk, and will be attended by a number of out-of-town guests.

Shakespearean Lecture. The concluding lecture of the series of Shakespearean lectures will be given Wednesday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock, at the University of Virginia. The lecture on the twelve plays that are to be produced at the big outdoor celebration at Richmond College closes next month. The lecture will be given in the Palm Garden of the Jefferson Hotel at 5 o'clock.

Interest Here. The engagement is announced of Miss Margaret Lindsay Fairfax, daughter of Mr. Lindsay Fairfax, son of a Lindsay Fairfax, of New York, and grandson of Mrs. William H. Fairfax, of Lenox, Mass. He is also nephew of Mrs. Charles C. Ayres and son of R. Fairfax, of Lenox; Henry Fairfax, of Oak Hill, in Loudoun county, and John Walter Fairfax, of Virginia Hall, on the James River. The engagement is of much interest to the society in this country, as well as in England, where Mr. Fairfax has been doing ambulance work assisting the Duchess of Rutland since the summer.

Engagement. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lillis announces her engagement and approaching marriage of her niece, Miss Irene Elina Lynch, to Louis R. Phelps. The wedding will take place on Wednesday evening, April 26.

Marriage. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carter have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Lettie Elmore, to John D. Avenport. The marriage will take place on April 29.

Concerning the Pageant. Mrs. George Street, of Westhampton, has been chosen for the character of Queen Anne, of Denmark, in the Shakespeare pageant, and the committee in charge of the assignment of characters is Miss Helen Christian, Mrs. Warwick and Mrs. T. C. Gordon. A fascinating dance will be given by the Westhampton girls for Queen Anne during the pageant, before she is brought to the English court by James I. There will be the two courts held, on opposite sides, and there will be a dance given by Queen Elizabeth also, one court being on the Stratford side and the other in the London. Different activities and merrymaking will go on before the two courts, and present a brilliant and beautiful scene. Other large character parts will be announced later.

Costume Committee. Mrs. Clarence G. Milbaker is chairman of the costume committee, which includes Mrs. R. A. Cuthorne, Mrs. Lorace Welford Jones and Mrs. R. A. Brock, sub-chairman. Sports costumes—Mrs. W. W. Gill, Miss Sarah M. Long, Mrs. George Van Vleet, Mrs. Todd Dabney and J. T. Ford, of the Y. M. C. A. Country costumes—Mrs. B. W. Tabb, Miss Emma M. Whitfield, Miss Sophie Blain, Mrs. Robert Beverly, Miss M. L. Smith, Mrs. M. C. Anderson, Miss Lee Brockbridge, Miss Susie P. Morris and Miss Baldwin. Court costumes—Miss Adele Clarke, Mrs. Conway Sands and Mrs. C. P. Lees. Middle-class costumes—Mrs. William F. Tompkins, Mrs. Meyer Kirsch and Mrs. A. L. Straus. The other members of the general committee are: H. B. Handy, Miss Lily Trevel, Mrs. G. B. Ball, Mrs. Alvin Hutzler, Miss Mary Robinson, Miss M. B. Bingham, Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Miss Hazel Galbraith, Mrs. William H. Schwarzschild and Mrs. M. E. Marcuse.

Musical Dussant. The Alumnae Association of St. Joseph's Academy will give a musical dussant on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the school in dancing hall. Some of the leading artists of Richmond will take part in the program, among them being Mrs. Scott Hudgins, Mrs. Coffman, Miss Estelle Dennis and Professor Hardy de Lisle, and James Womble. This is the first entertainment to be given by the association, which was formed about a month ago, and all interested are invited to attend.

Metcalfe-Hughes. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Leach, 314 North Park Street, a quiet, but pretty marriage was witnessed on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Marian Virginia, became the bride of Wayne Carr Metcalfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Metcalfe, of Williamsburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. James, D. D., in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dark blue taffeta silk, and carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Jessie Peterson, of Alderson, W. Va., the maid of honor, wore a charming dress of old rose. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas. W. F. Metcalfe, brother of the groom, was best man. The other attendants were Miss Lilla May Ferrin, in old rose chaperone, and Drewry Jones.

The parlors were decorated with palms and pink shaded lights. Lohengrin's Wedding March was rendered by Miss Lillian Bowman.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe left for a Northern tour. On their return they will make their home at 314 North Park Street.

To Give Musicals. One of the most interesting events of the coming week will be the concert and entertainment on Wednesday evening in St. Mary's Hall, 312 East Marshall Street, at 8:30 o'clock, under the able direction of Hardy de Lisle.

The following program will be rendered: Opening orchestra. (a) "Macushka," by Rowe-Macushka; (b) "Three for Jack," by Spencer. (c) "Somewhere," by Tatro; (d) "Whispering Hope," by Hawthorne. Misses Mary Fagan, Cecelia Granger. (e) "Delight," by Luckstone; (f) "May Morning," by Benze-Miss Ada Kirk. Selected—Joseph Whittemore. Duet, "La A' Daren," from "Don Giovanni"—Miss Kirk and Mr. Carson. Solo, Charles Schremp. Solo, "Song," by Speak—Miss Doza Mitchell. Duet recitation—F. Hardy de Lisle.
